Egypt Climbs Fifa Rankings

March 31, 2010

Egypt's national soccer team has moved up three places to fourteenth in the world, according to the latest Fifa world rankings released on Wednesday.

With Hassan Shehata as their coach, The Pharaoh's are the highest ranked soccer team in Africa.

World Cup-bound Cameroon is the only other team from the continent in the world's top 20.

Spain retained the top spot, while Portugal and England both improved their positions in the top 10.
